ROTHESAY:
HIGGIE & CO., PUBLISHERS.

PREFACE TO 1915-16 EDITION.

WE have again diligently and carefully collected and arranged useful information regarding Buteshire as it is to-day—with its officials, householders, and business people—and once again have pleasure in giving the compilation the honours of the Press.

Notwithstanding the strain and economies of the Greatest of all Wars, we have managed to produce our Directory as complete as formerly.

As our Advertising friends appreciate the distribution of their announcements facing the ordinary reading matter, we hope, with continued prompt receipt of orders, to be enabled to keep permanent this decided benefit.

Our desire is to overlook no interest; and therefore, we respectfully solicit notices of alterations or additions as early as possible, so that these may be given effect to.

This Directory is a much more important publication than many imagine. One of the earliest publications connected with Buteshire was a Directory, issued about one hundred years ago in conjunction with Renfrewshire. The printing of portions of it about forty years ago in one of the local papers made such interesting reading, that the idea of having such a present-day record for Rothesay took the popular fancy and led up to the present compilation for the whole of Buteshire.

This DIRECTORY is not only at hand for reference at all times throughout the whole county, but it is also ready for reference in the libraries of Glasgow, Edinburgh, London, Dublin, Cambridge, Oxford, &c., and in numerous business houses and agencies in busy centres throughout the kingdom; so we are particularly anxious that nothing of benefit to Buteshire be omitted, but that all interests have a good show, and everything be brought thoroughly up to date.

Our best thanks are again accorded to those who have in any way helped us in this compilation. It takes long and careful vigilance to ascertain and give effect to the continual changes. Notwithstanding the distractions of the world war, we have been enabled to present "business as usual" here. It is scarcely that, of course, but we are intact, will survive the blast, recuperate, and flourish again.

HIGGIE & CO., PUBLISHERS.

OFFICIALS.

COUNTY OF BUTE.

THE COUNTY OF BUTE comprises the seven islands in the Firth of Clyde, viz. —BUTE, the most populous; ARRAN, the largest; the GREAT and LITTLE CUMBERAES, off the Ayrshire Coast; HOLY ISLE and PLADDA, off Arran; and INCH-MARNOCK, off Bute.

The total AREA OF THE COUNTY (land and water, exclusive of tidal water) is 139,658 acres, of which 53,510 are mountain and heath lands used for grazing. 3,806 acres are under plantations, and 794 are covered with water. There are 25,981 acres under all kinds of crops, bare fallow and grass, which is a gradual inroad on the mountain heath and hitherto uncultivated land.

The principal INDUSTRIES are agriculture, horticulture, and fishing. The islands possess great and varied natural attractions, and are in the forefront as holiday resorts.

The Population of the COUNTY (including its Burghs of ROTHESAY and MILLPORT) in 1801 was 11,791; 1831, 14,151; 1861, 16,331; 1881, 17,657. In 1891 it was 18,248 (8,057 males and 10,197 females); and in 1901, 18,786 (8,412 males and 10,374 females)—being an increase of 255 in the ten years—2·1 per cent. There were 4,270 inhabited houses in the islands.

For 1911, the figures were as follows:—

	Males.	Females.	Total.	Revised total.
Arran - - -	2,169	2,402	4,571	4,628*
Bute (including Rothesay)	5,081	6,781	11,799	11,851
Cumbræ - - -	704	992	1,696	1,707

*The increased total issued in the Quarterly Return of the Registrar-General compared with the returns lodged with the Sheriff-Clerk, may be accounted for by the enumeration of the shipping.

The decreases since 1901 are as follows: Arran, 209; Bute, 330; Cumbræ, 62—total, 601.

Parish and Burgh of Rothesay.

ROTHESAY, the carital of Buteshire, was originally a village in connection with the Castle, and was created a Royal Burgh by Robert III in 1400. It became a place of considerable importance in fishing, coopering, and cotton spinning and weaving, and now it is noted as the most popular Summer resort in Scotland.

Twenty years ago the landward portion of the Parish of Rothesay being amalgamated with North Bute, henceforth, for secular purposes, the boundary of the parish is the same as that of the burgh.

Parish of North Bute.

THIS is the northern portion of the island of Bute. Port-Bannatyne, its principal village, is two and a-half miles from Rothesay, with which it is connected by tramway. Kames Castle, in the vicinity, is said to be the oldest inhabited castle in the country, and was the ancient seat of the Bannatynes. The village was named after that family—two brothers of whom (John and Gilbert)—received a charter from King Robert the Bruce, for services rendered at Bannockburn.

At the last census, the parish contained 449 males and 518 females, total, 1718—being a decrease of 88 since 1901, which was an increase of 150 over 1891.

Parish of Kingarth.

THIS parish is rich in ecclesiastical history. The Irish Bishop, St Cattán, landed here in the year 489. He was uncle of the famous St Blane. The parish includes the popular village of Kilchattan Bay, which is about seven miles from Rothesay, and has regular connection by steamer and bus. The population in 1891 was 1062; in 1901, 1056; and in 1911, 967

11th Annual Congress, 'Frisco, 1915

The 11th Annual International Congress was to be held in Edinburgh this year, but the Great War, which prevented the holding of the 10th at Paris last year, is the means of transferring the 11th to San Francisco now. To commemorate the opening of the Panama Canal a big Exhibition is being held there, and a Tuta Pacifika Esperanto Kongreso has developed into the 10a Tuta Mondo Esperanto Kongreso. The language of peace and universal brotherhood is spreading, and the wide-awake Germans were prompt to spread, by its means, their version of the cause of this terrible war. They are (?) an innocent peace-loving people, who had a cruel war forced upon them, and the chilk-like and bland Teutons were forced to defend their homes from ruthless destruction (!) Esperanto is not known by everybody, but it is much easier to learn and comprehend than any national language, and there is not a single civilized country in the world without an Esperanto group or individual members, and to these the German version went, and was translated into the languages of the different countries. These communications through a neutral language were taken to be unbiased, whereas the communications in English, French, Russian, Flemish, or Italian and the languages of the south-east of Europe were believed to be prejudiced. Truth and righteousness have much to overcome, but they will prevail.

The Isle of Arran.

THIS island, the largest in the group, is famous for the grandeur of its scenery and the variety of its geological deposits. The island is twenty miles in length, twelve in breadth, and is divided into two parishes—Kilbride on the east, and Kilmory on the west. The late King Edward and Queen Alexandra spent a very pleasant holiday in the island after their Coronation in August, 1902, and witnessed interesting sheep dog trials

Cannot fail to be appreciated wherever sent.

"One of the most gratifying messages of good will that has reached us this season comes from Rothesay, Scotland, in the form of a 'Heather Christmas Card' issued by Messrs Higgie & Co., of that favourite resort. . . . The two inside pages are surrounded with mottoes, every one of which breathes a true Scottish sentiment of good will to absent relatives or acquaintances. Along with this card Messrs Higgie & Co., send us a copy of their guide to 'Bonnie Scotland's Resorts,' a wonderful little compendium of descriptive and historical information."—New Zealand Times, Wellington.

"They're faur, faur awa', but their hearts are kind and true—

The auld hoose at hame is ever in their view :

The Bonnie Heilan heather and the hilltaps clad wi' snaw—

Their hearts are aye in Scotland though they're faur, faur awa'."

A Selection of Cards from our stock will be sent post free to any address on receipt of 1s, 2s, 3s, 4s, 5s and upwards.

These Cards are made at from 1d to 1s each.

The Bute County Directory

is the only Publication of the kind printed and published in Buteshire. Its data is carefully compiled, and much time and attention is devoted each year to the careful investigation and noting of the necessary alterations in the personnel of the occupants of public offices, the correct addresses of the general inhabitants, and the latest changes amongst those engaged in trade.

The earliest publications connected with Rothesay were Directories, and they are interesting reading even at this time of day.

Our publication not only includes Rothesay, but embraces the whole County of Bute, and though it has increased in usefulness and circulation, its price and advertisement tariff have remained the same.

IS ESPERANTO WORTH LEARNING?

An International Language is an attempt to save the greatest amount of labour and open the widest fields of thought and action to the greatest number. From "The International Language, Past, Present, and Future," by W. J. CLARK, M.A.

International Congresses are held Annually: In San Francisco in 1915.

The International Language is

All that a Learner requires is
A History of the Movement to date,
An Instruction Book,
and "Mems. for the Wayfarer."

2d, 4d or 6d in postage stamps, or International Postal Coupons, will bring a selection to you.

[The translated introductory pages of BONNIE SCOTLAND'S RECORDS had the honour of being the first national guide-book printed in the international language.]

After a few days' study—
The vast field of Esperanto Literature may be sampled, including Enlarged Instruction Books,

DICTIONARIES,

GUIDE BOOKS,

HISTORIES, and

GENERAL LITERATURE.

We are members of the Universala Esperanta Asocio, and are in communication with Esperanto Publishing Offices throughout the World, and are consequently in a position to supply a rare selection of books.

HIGGIE & CO., Publishers, Rothsay, Scotland.

In Part III of our Directory, we do not aim at printing such complete lists of Householders as will be found in the official Voters' Roll, published two or three months hence. While, however, we miss several names of the hundreds of persons whose houses are closed during the Winter months, we print those new ones which will not appear in the Voters' Roll until they have tenanted their houses for more than a year.

THE BUTE COUNTY DIRECTORY.

This DIRECTORY now-a-days contains the information distinctive of both the DIRECTORY and the ALMANAC of past years, and the date of its issue is gradually becoming midway between the original dates of issue of these two publications. We begin our researches early enough, but the airy Summer publications must hustle out while the sun shines. The DIRECTORY, although very useful to the fluctuating visiting population, is not necessarily a fine-weather publication, but a hardy permanent resident.

Our aim, in this publication, is not to record the passing names and achievements of visitors and those who come to cater for them, but something of far greater importance—the registering of the names, standing, and businesses of the resident population—for the information of all having an interest in Buteshire, its burghs and rural districts.

The Directory is, of course, not only for the remaining portion of the year in which it is issued, but continues the only printed reference book for the county of Bute until its successor appears.

One edition of the Directory is no sooner off than we begin to note alterations (and prepare for probable additions) for the next—so that it may be thoroughly up to date. These alterations and probable additions lie at our office, and are at the service of our customers.

Will Secretaries of societies, etc., connected with Buteshire, who do not already do so, please remember to forward to us particulars of their institutions, annual reports, and lists of office-bearers, as information for the next issue of the Directory?

We are not yet enabled to publish all the information that we desire, but that does not prevent us compiling (in anticipation of greater reciprocity) more than we at present print.

This Directory is not only found all over Buteshire, but in the libraries and other places of public resort in “the adjacent islands of Great Britain and Ireland.”

THE BUTE COUNTY DIRECTORY.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"It is splendidly compiled."—Campbeltown Courier.

"Being invaluable, it should have a large circulation."—Argyllshire Advertiser.

"Contains a large amount of information carefully revised to date."—Glasgow Herald.

The Directory is indispensable to business people in the county."—Rothesay Express.

"Useful local annual. A useful book of this kind is a convenience that no busy trader can afford to be without."—Buteman.

"Every little parish has its own pages in the book. It contains much general information relating to the County of Bute. It is well worth the price—one shilling."—Ardrossan Herald.

Messrs Higgin and Co, are to be highly complimented on the production of a volume which, for reference, should prove invaluable to all classes of the community.—Greenock Telegraph.

"Will be found invaluable to those having any connection with Rothesay; and as for the many visitors who are attracted to the island, they could scarcely get on without it."—Greenock Herald.

"If the importance of a place is to be judged from the local directory, as claimed, then the County of Bute in general, and Rothesay in particular, must be said to occupy a high plane."—Evening Times.

"The Directory should be indispensable to residents in the County of Bute, and all who have official or business relations with it. It is really a valuable volume for the inhabitants of the County of Bute."—Largs and Millport Weekly News.

"Indeed in this book is to be found all the information which the most inquiring person requires to know about the county. The matter is well arranged. Such a book is a necessary part of the equipment of every office which does business with islands whose interests are so closely associated with those of Glasgow."—Evening Times.

Besides the opinions of the Press we have received spontaneous testimony of the usefulness of the Directory—from professional and business gentlemen and pleasure-seekers, not only in the county but beyond it.

A Rothesay public official wrote:—"The Bute County Directory has many times proved most valuable when visitors have come to me inquiring for the addresses of their Rothesay friends. In fact, we could hardly do without it."

An Arran postmaster wrote:—"I am much obliged for your courtesy in sending me the Bute County Directory, but do not think it reasonable that I should have all the benefit of the information you have compiled with so much care and expense entirely free of expense, so I take the liberty of enclosing postal order for 1s 4d for cost and postage."

BUSINESS Education

Shorthand,
Typewriting,
Esperanto, and Business Methods.

MR HIGGIE'S CLASSES FOR PRACTICAL INSTRUCTION are conducted during the two Winter Quarters---October till December and January till March.

Shorthand will continue to be taught with a view to its subsequent usefulness in Business and Professionally.

In Typewriting special attention will be devoted to Punctuation and Capitalisation—a thorough knowledge of which is absolutely necessary in Practical Printing, and cannot longer be neglected by those aspiring to be First-Class Typists.

Esperanto.—This wonderful International Language is already used for Business and Pleasure in all parts of the world. Mr HIGGIE, being an official of the Universal Esperanto Association, is in touch with important regions all over the world, and regularly corresponds with persons everywhere---notwithstanding their different national languages.

This auxiliary language anticipates the happy time when there will be “Peace on earth, good will to men,” which is coming yet in spite of the present times of great tribulation. Its efficacy in tracing missing friends and making new ones has been repeatedly evidenced—even in this terrible War.

Business Methods.—Instruction given in other Up-to-Date Business Methods. Advertisement Writing is a Present Day Enviably Profession, and the ground-work and minutæ have long been familiar to a practical Printer like Mr Higgle.

Messrs HIGGIE & COY.'S ESPERANTO PUBLICATIONS are known, read and appreciated throughout the whole civilised world. Many of the contributions are written by up-to-date foreigners.
